FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Silicon Valley Shakespeare Offers Bold Take on Love's Labour's Lost

Shakespeare meets '90s pop rock in reimagined classic tale!

Friday evening, June 10, 2016, at 8:00p.m., Silicon Valley Shakespeare begins its 4th annual production at Willow Street Park in San Jose with Love's Labour's Lost. Part of their Free Shakespeare in the Park series, this early Shakespeare romantic comedy is brought to life through a modern pop star lens.

Ferdinand, the king (of pop music), and his loyal boy band have sworn off women. But what happens when a Princess arrives, with her spicy friends? Romance, comedy, misdelivered letters, and overheard confessions fill this Shakespeare classic with a fresh, contemporary musical twist, including some of your favorite 90's boy/girl band hits.

SVS' first touring production, Love's Labour's Lost will then be performed at Central Park in San Mateo, from September 9th-18th.
