Shakespeare's Most Wanted

Silicon Valley Shakespeare remounts audience favorite for 20th season.

Friday evening, April 27, 2018, at 8:00p.m., Silicon Valley Shakespeare (SVS) reprises their very popular, original production of Shakespeare's Most Wanted, written and co-directed by Doll Piccotto, at Triton Museum Hall Pavilion in Santa Clara. One of ten original productions this season for SVS, this spring event will run for three performances only, April 27-29, and will help fund the theatre company's Free Shakespeare in the Park at Willow Street in San Jose.

SVS premiered Most Wanted in 2007, reprised it in 2009, and is bringing it back in celebration of their 20th season, featuring some of the theatre company's most well-loved actors from over the years. Audiences will enjoy an evening of fun and fiendishness as Shakespeare's most notorious villains are set loose for the evening to entertain and dismay. Agent Marlowe provides our spectators with an evening of tough love as she explores the evil deeds of these monsters and malcontents.

Written by Doll Piccotto and William Shakespeare

Directed by Angie Higgins and Doll Piccotto
